

COURT NEWS.

Breach of Promise Case — The Cartwrights Reconciled.

The breach of promise case brought by Kahananui (W.) against V. V. Ashford was up for trial yesterday, but owing to the illness of Judge Carter it was postponed until Tuesday next.

Argument in the famous Henrietta opium case was had on Thursday, but no decision rendered. Yesterday the judges of the Supreme Court visited Ewa to inspect the dam, over which the suit in the Tong Tai Wai case was brought.

Henry Waterhouse and William Waterhouse, surviving executors of the estate of John Thomas Waterhouse, have filed their last accounts with a petition for allowance and discharge.

H. E. McIntyre and Mrs. Jane Walker as executors and trustees of the estate of John S. Walker, deceased, and the Wilder Steamship Company as co-defendants in the suit of Bishop & Co. Gibson Estate have filed answer in their own behalf. They present claims aggregating $33,981.82, and pray that the foreclosure of the prior mortgage of Bishop & Co. over and above the amounts due on such mortgages, shall be applied to the satisfaction of their several claims as aforesaid.

Alexander J. Cartwright and Susie F. Cartwright, by their attorney, C. W. Ashford, have entered a bill in equity, signed at San Francisco in the presence of Consul General Charles T. Wilder, against Bruce Cartwright, Ruth Cartwright and Mary Muriel, their daughters, change a deed of trust. The complainants on March 31, 1894, executed a deed of separation and trust, whereby the residence of Alexander J. Cartwright and $15,000 were placed in the hands of Bruce Cartwright for the support of Susie F., the wife of Alexander J., and Ruth and Mary Muriel, their daughters. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cartwright, having happily become reconciled, are now mutually desirous of resuming marital relations and residence. Therefore they ask in their complaint that the deed of trust be amended, but still retaining the trust in the hands of Bruce Cartwright, with his consent, and that a guardian ad litem be appointed for the children. Judge Carter has appointed Paul Neumann as such guardian.

Whatever the cause of this frequent depression of spirits, this tendency to self-pity, bad temper and tears, it is dangerous. It is selfish. It robs you of any market value as a worker in the living world about you.

Are you ever half in love with careful death? If you have ever been suddenly confronted with a prospect of certain death, you know once for all that you mean to live. But when anything wounds your feelings, i. e., your self-love, more deeply than you can endure; when the woes of existence more than balance its joys; then perhaps you are ready, with the melancholy Dane, to shuffle off this mortal coil.

When you reach this point you are playing with explosives. It is time for right about face. Depression needs little help to become a disease. It may end with insanity, or that most monstrous of all forms of selfishness—suicide.

We are now quite ready to consider the preventives of so serious a habit. I cannot cure melancholia—that I leave to medicine, philosophy or religion. I can prevent chronic indulgence in the blues, and so avoid the awful results of such indulgence.

First of all, you must have the will to control yourself. You can do it, if you so determine. Be busy about some absorbing work, but not too busy. Walk as far as your strength will permit. Be careful about eating, bathing and sleep. At least one woman I know has a wise husband. If he finds her looking at the world through blue spectacles he promptly gives her a glass of milk and a cracker.

And again white with bright sunlight, if not glowing with the delusive color of rose.

If you are fighting the blues it is sometimes beneficial to read of greater suffering than you have known, but on the whole I advise you to avoid morbid books that make such inroads upon your emotional force. Do not sit long hours alone with your conscience—at least, not yet. Some one has finely said, "Be happy and you will be good."

I find that change is an excellent tonic—change of thought, or change of occupation. Even a change to a more becoming gown is not to be despised. Speaking of the blues, there is a good story told of Whittier. It seems that Elizabeth Stuart Phelps once came to talk with him, and her mood was deepest indigo. When the kindly poet could endure her pessimism no longer he quietly but effectively silenced her with this admonition: "Elizabeth, let thee and me talk about the fashions."

There is a Time

For everything. And NOW is the time to break up your ground for planting cane. Planners, after trying other kinds of breakers, have come back to the Hail Breakers as being the Best Kind in Use. We have sold a great many within a few weeks, but still have on hand a few 12, 14 and 15 inch. We also have a few more of the celebrated

Hall's Furrow Plows:

No plantation is fully equipped without one or more of these. We have in stock a few of the WHEEL WALKING SINGLE PLOWS. This is the best stirring plow ever introduced here, and has fairly revolutionized the cultivation on some of the Hilo and Kau plantations. TRY THEM!

Also, Hall's Steel SIDE HILL BREAKERS, for use on hilly ground, and in use on many of the plantations in places where a steam plow or ordinary breaker will not work.

A number of years ago we introduced from Philadelphia the "Planet Jr. Horse Hoe," and have sold hundreds of them all over the Islands. It is one of the best cultivators ever used on a plantation. We are selling a great many now, and have a few left. Now is the time to use them. Constantly on hand all sizes of

Planet Jr. Horse Hoe

Rice Plows, Harrows, Buckeye Mowers, And All Kinds of Agricultural Implements.

The Aluminum Cane Knife

That we have this year introduced has had a wonderful success. We got entirely out, but have just received a new lot. Read this letter:

MASA, NAUAI, JANUARY 30, 1896.

MESSES. E. O. HALL & SON, Honolulu.

DEAR SIRS:—Regarding the aluminum cane knives which you sold us some time ago, allow us to state that same have given us the utmost satisfaction, and we think them superior to any cane knife we have used. The knives are light and durable, and keep a very good edge. The handles are also a great improvement, and are well shaped for Japs. Our men always try to secure an aluminum knife in preference to others, which we think the very best recommendation. We remain,

Yours truly, H. P. FAYE & CO.

We have received other letters just as commendatory.

The Tropic Oil

For Engine and Cylinder is meeting with great success. We thought we had enough to carry us through the season, but have got entirely out. We are expecting a new supply, however, any day, and can supply any orders that may come in, besides some now on our books for delivery. The "Tropic" is a Very High Grade Oil and has given perfect satisfaction where it is being used.
